

Hazem Hussein Abbas Ali

Assistant Professor of Archives and Documents

Beni Suef University, Egypt

Office: Department of Archives, Fifth Floor, Faculty of Arts Building, Beni Suef University, Egypt

Cell: (+20) 122 1619 582

E-mail: hazem.ali@art.bsu.edu.eg

Expertise: Arabic Papyrology, Archives and Documents, Electronic Archives.

Education:

January 2010: PhD in Electronic Archives, Cairo University.

May 2002: MA in Arabic papyri, Cairo University.

May 1996: BA in Archives and Documents, Cairo University.

1996: Diploma in archives, Cairo University.

Teaching:

Diplomatic science; introduction to documentation; Arabic documents in medieval Islam; cultural history in medieval Islam.

Key Publications and Conferences:

2012: “Five Unpublished Arabic Amulets from the Papyri Collection of Dar al-Kutub al-Masriyyah (P. Cair. B.E)”. Fifth International Society for Arabic Papyrology Conference, Carthage, March 28-31, 2012.

2011: “International Protection of Archives during Armed Conflicts”. Al-Arabia 3000, Syria, 2011.

2010: Electronic diplomatic documents: Documentation and Authenticity, Cairo University, faculty of arts.

2002: Arabic Papyri at Dār al-Kutub al-Miṣrīyah(P.Cair. B.E) , Cairo university, faculty of arts.

Research Interests:

My research focuses on Arabic papyrology, codicology and paleography, electronic archives, and use of documentary evidence.