

Concerned with the message by the Arab contribution in the field of common standards and targeted stand on the quantitative study and topical unified Arab standards in the field of libraries and information and concluded to the absence of a purely Arab standards in the area and most of them have been adopted by the International Standards