

Represents the information-going research and recorded Kotrohat, is vital to researchers, Almkhttin, and decision makers in the field of social sciences and humanities, it is importance of the place before the start of any research study that the researchers are in search of a comprehensive intellectual production to find out what was published already in the field of study, it is also important to identify what done by other researchers at the present time Mnseauth in the same field or fields represented, because there are some researchers who record a subject and after a period of evolution or may fail to find that the same subject is discussed in a college or other universities, may be due to one of three - :reasons

.Inaccuracies in the recording to make sure the subject of study by that or not -

Change the title of a treatise registered or recorded without DROPPing it in the media -
.briefing

.The existence of shortcomings in the university vis-à-identifiers recorded -

In this sense The importance of the study as he tries researcher study plots theses recorded in the Egyptian universities in the Egyptian universities in the field of social sciences and humanities, and to identify the different ways that are followed in the process of registration and deposit, as well as the media about these topics, and from the problem of the study and its questions were defined objectives of the study in Alqat the following, identify the reality of theses and tools to identify them and control as a result of the schemes theses, study phases and how to choose topics of research, become acquainted with the current situation on the identifiers of topics recorded, and also identify ways in which gets researchers under which copies of the plans treatises recorded