

Message by means of electronic information services from the perspective of the overall quality application on a sample of Egyptian libraries and finished to a high degree of willingness of workers in libraries under study on the application of total quality in their libraries