

Scientific Production Summary for Dr / Atef Mohamed Bayoumi:

1. The first topic under the title: "It documents the modern era: the power of attorney documents," a documentary study. The study deals with the evolution of the agency system since the Islamic era, the meaning of the language of the IAEA and idiomatically in addition to the legality of the agency and the difference between them and the authority. And address as well as the types of agencies as mentioned documents and the pillars of power of attorney documents and study concludes display method of taking out the pages in the power of attorney documents and then publish models of documents the agency taking into account the diversity of the types of agencies

2. Thread the second under the title: steps indexing news radio and press: a comparative study. This theoretical study presents a comparison between the steps indexing news radio and the difference between them and the steps indexing news releases, as well as shed light on the activities carried out by the organization of Al-Ahram Center and microfilm of projects since 1969. The study also shows the stages of filming and the digitization of radio news until the release of the indexes needed for recovery. The study concludes bid for ways indexing news radio with reference to the indexing website and its role in this area

..... --

3. the third issue under the title: the state and the custody of the young: Documentary study this study addresses the trusteeship and guardianship of kids who have not yet attained the age of puberty legitimate, meaning the state guardianship languages and Stalaha The difference between them, as well as the civil provisions for the young and the conditions to be met by the guardian guardian, and when it becomes the guardian to guardian Garsalehin these large secretariat. And it ends the study of documentary and methods of taking out the pages of this type of documents with the publication of models of these documents and display the pictures of her

..... . -----

4. The fourth issue under the title: models of the transfer of ownership documents: documentary study is under study of the importance of the right of ownership in Islam and how keen Islam is the protection of this right and the reasons for gaining property, as the study exposed to the verification methods and characteristics of the right of ownership. As well as the property sections (and the original dependency). Then the documents presented models of temporary and permanent property ownership and all to choose what suits him, ending an offer to study ways to bring out the documents of ownership, both pages. Then study concludes publish models of these documents with the presentation of the most important terms in the images of these documents

..... -----

5. Thread the fifth titled: planning for the establishment of an electronic management of technical documents of the Union of Egyptian radio and Television system. The study deals with a brief idea about the origin of the Egyptian Radio archive of important contracts and its collection of artists and musical notes for senior banking composers of the twentieth century, as well as the most important radio skits and other large archive scenarios. For this study it proposes a system for the digitization of this great treasure that images through micro-imaging only without any means of retrieving except timetable history of documents, from here was the role of the study in the development of an integrated plan for this. The study concludes the important findings and recommendations that emerged from the study .